

May 28th - Sun
CARPENTERS' HALL
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

was built in 1770 by The Carpenters' Company,
founded in 1724 by a group of master carpenters,
as their hall.

From September 5, 1774, on, the First Continental Congress met here almost daily. Because of its historic importance, Carpenters' Company in 1857 resolved to dedicate this hall as a patriotic shrine.

Dear Mom & Dad,

It is sunny & warm
in Philly and a good day to visit since many people have left town.

The historic area is within walking distance.

Driving up to Boston this
